

Neosho County Community College Upward Bound Summer Program Resident Assistant Job Description

The Upward Bound Program is looking for 3-4 Summer Resident Assistants (RAs) to provide participants with a positive living/learning environment. This is a seasonal overnight position beginning May 29 and ending June 29. RAs will be required to work an end-of-program trip from July 2 – July 7. The pay amount is $2,300. (Optional - $500 stipend for RA who drives students to/from Driver's Ed before their shift (Between 7 am and 2:30 pm)).

Resident Assistant Expectations

1. Be a positive role model for UB participants.
2. Discuss problems and concerns with your Head RA.
3. Support fellow R.A. s and maintain positive relationships/a cohesive team feeling with each other.
4. If you have an outside job, arrangements must be made with your employer to accommodate our required hours. Our hours are flexible and may require RA's to be available before or after the below-mentioned on-duty hours.
5. Have fun and enjoy the activities, encouraging student participation.
6. Demonstrate personal qualities of maturity, self-reliance, motivation, initiative, responsibility, self-esteem, and integrity. Demonstrate strong interpersonal and leadership skills.
7. Applicants are expected to be degree-seeking students or have already earned an Associate's Degree or higher. Promotion of higher education to the participants is encouraged.

Resident Assistant Responsibilities

1. Attend resident assistant training online and in person before students move in.
2. RA staff move into the dorms on Monday, May 29, 2023, at 8:00 am. Final checkout is after the last student leaves on June 29, 2023. RA staff are required to work the end-of-program trip from July 2-July 7, 2023. Staff is not allowed to remain on campus during the weekend or the break before the trip.
3. Assist with student check-ins and check-outs. Collect car keys and give students dorm room keys at check-in and return car keys and collect dorm room keys at checkout.
4. Provide security for students while in the residence hall and while away on trips and activities. This includes: conducting rounds, making sure doors are not propped open, making sure side doors of the Res Hall are locked, monitoring anyone who enters the Res Hall, etc.
5. Conduct room/hall checks periodically throughout the night to make sure that all students are in the building and in the correct room. Each RA will be assigned one night a week to be On-Call. On-Call hours are 10:30 pm to 7:00 am and will be scheduled by the Head Resident Assistant.
6. Provide security from 10:30 p.m. to 7:30 a.m. (Note there will be a Security Guard present overnight.) The RA On-Call each night is expected to remain in a visible area (preferably between the boys' and girls' halls) and conduct hallway checks and rounds every hour until 3:00 am. After 3 am, the On-Call RA will be able to go to sleep but will be required to answer the On-Call Phone if anything happens between 3 am and 7 am when full-time staff arrives.
7. Provide and facilitate evening programs and activities.
8. Assist Head RA with a Sunday evening educational activity each week.
9. Assist Head RA with keeping a log of attendance for lunches, classes, study hall, on & off-campus activities, and field trips.
10. Ensure that students are not returning to the dorms during the daytime.
11. Travel with UB staff and students.

12. RA staff must be on duty every day (Monday-Wednesday) from 2:30 pm to 10:30 pm. All RA staff members are on duty until the last student has left for the weekend on Thursday between 2:30 & 6 pm (the first week check out is Friday). RAs will report to the college Sundays at 6 pm and are on duty until 10:30 pm.
13. Assist Head RA to ensure every student is awake and attends breakfast each morning.
14. May need to transport students to appointments, Wal-Mart, driver's ed, etc.
15. Supervise students during their free time and evening activities.
16. Check students out early if a family member is coming to pick up a student.
17. Work with the UB Staff to provide a quality and successful summer program.
18. Document violations or infractions and maintain current, accurate incident reports. Report to Head RA.
19. Follow all policies as outlined in the Upward Bound Handbook, the Neosho County Community College catalog and emergency procedure manual, and the Upward Bound student handbook.
20. RAs must collect and turn in any receipts for purchases for UB to the Upward Bound staff immediately after purchase. Failure to return a receipt will result in a deduction from RA wages.
21. Enforce and follow all COVID restrictions (training provided)
22. Other duties as assigned and hours are subject to change.

Student Mentorship

1. Provide leadership and be a role model.
2. Assist students and help them adjust to residence hall living.
3. Facilitate UB programs and workshops.
4. Get to know the participants and develop relationships with all of them.
5. Provide them with information about the campus and upcoming activities.
6. Share information about your Educational path and journey; offer guidance about education to students.
7. Be aware of the needs and problems of the participants.
8. Monitor and mediate student relationship issues during the program.
9. Assist Head RA in providing students with a planned academic activity Sunday evenings.
10. Encouraged to eat meals in the cafeteria with the students.
11. Be available to tutor students, if necessary.

Living Environment

1. Maintain and enforce curfews and conduct room checks.
2. Update bulletin boards with upcoming activities and events.
3. Ensure that the building is kept clean.
4. Housing, meals, and transportation costs are all covered by the Upward Bound program.

Discipline

1. Work with UB and NCCC Staff to maintain conduct policies.
2. Understand housing and UB policies regarding conduct and behavior.
3. Report behavior infractions to the Academic Coordinator and/or Director and complete required documentation.
4. Help solve personal conflicts.

It is significant to remember that these students likely have never lived away from home; therefore you must assist them in this transition. You will be like a surrogate family member. Resident Assistants are vital to the success of the Summer Program. People selected must be mature, communicate well with students from differing backgrounds, be positive role models, maintain confidentiality, and be flexible to UB staff requests.
